

ANNEX IV
Chapter II

Sanitary certificate for the importation into France of ungulate or poultry products from authorized third countries that have been subjected to a complete treatment and to be used for technical or pharmaceutical uses.

Country of Destination .....
Exporting Country .....
Relevant Ministry .....
Relevant issuing office .....
Sanitary Certificate Number .....

I – Product Identification

Whole blood, blood products or other products (1) .....
Type of products:.....
Type of packaging:.....
Number of packaging units:.....
Net weight:.....

II – Product Provenance

Address(es) of establishments registered by authorized veterinary authorities: .....
.....
Shipper's Name and Address: .....

III – Product Destination

Products shipped from: ..... (Shipping address)
to: .....(Destination country and address)
By the following transportation mode (2): .....
Importer's Name and Address: .....
Recipient's Name and Address: .....

IV – Sanitary Certificate

The undersigned official veterinarian certifies that:

1. Products described above come from animals having lived on the territory
.....(3) at least for three months prior to their slaughtering, or since birth for animals under three months of age;

2. Products described above do not come:
- a) From animal carcasses, including still-born animals and fetuses;
  - b) From animals slaughtered to eradicate epizootic illnesses;
  - c) From animals showing signs or traces of communicable illnesses at the time of slaughtering.

3. Products described above were treated with one of the following treatments:

For blood and blood products (1):

- a heat treatment at a temperature of 65°C (149°F) for a least three hours; or
- a 2.5 megarads or gamma ray irradiation; or
- a change in the pH to pH5 during two hours; or
- a thermal treatment allowing to reach an Fo value equal or greater than 3.00.

For other products:

- a thermal treatment allowing to reach an Fo value equal or greater than 3.00.

4. Products have been handled in order to avoid any contamination.

Done in ....., on .....

Seal (Official veterinarian signature) .....

(Print name, qualifications and title of signatory)

(1) Cross out those that do not apply.

(2) Indicate means of transportation and license number, flight number or name, as required.

(3) Indicate name of exporting country.

Exporting country: .....

Ministry: .....

Service: .....

I – Gelatin Identification

Type of products:.....

Lot number: .....

Type of packaging:.....

Number of packaging units:.....

Guaranteed conservation period: .....

Net weight (kg):.....

II – Gelatin Provenance

Address(es) of producing establishments: .....

.....

III – Gelatin Destination

Shipper's Name and address: .....

Recipient's Name and Address: .....

Mode of Transportation (license/registration number/flight number/ship's name): .....

IV – Sanitary Certificate

The undersigned official veterinarian certifies that gelatins described above were manufactured using a method that ensures:

- that all bone matters shall undergo a degreasing process followed by an acid treatment with a pH <1.5 for at least four days, followed by an alkaline treatment using either lye with a pH >12.5 for at least forty-five days, or 0.3N caustic soda for ten to fourteen days, followed by a heat treatment at 138-140°C (280-284°F) for four seconds, and
- that all other raw materials (hides, tendons and ligaments) shall undergo an alkaline treatment such as described in the previous paragraph, followed by a heat treatment at 138-140°C (280-284°F) for four seconds.

Done in ....., on .....

Seal (Official veterinarian signature) .....